First-Year Student Orientation Recap

We had so much fun meeting many of you at Orientation over the past two weeks, and hope you enjoyed your time on campus!

Regardless of whether or not you attended, we would like all students to complete the following survey. It will take no more than five minutes (promise!) and the information will help us with planning:

Take the Survey!

I Missed Orientation! Now What?

Fall Schedule: Please reach out to your academic department with any questions or concerns you have about your fall classes. Contact information can be found in your Online Orientation \(NSO55\).

Reminder: advisors are not assigned until the first week of class!
Reference Module 1 to determine who to contact.

ID Card: If you have not uploaded your photo for your ID card, please check your email from Card Services with instructions on how to upload. You can visit the Office of Student Accounts (Green Hall 119) to either pick up your ID Card (photo approved) or to take a photo and have the card printed. The office is open Monday-Thursday 8:30a-4:30p. Students who don't live close to campus will be able to pick up their card during Welcome Week. We do not mail ID Cards.

Survey: YES... we still want you to complete the survey as there are some non-orientation questions we want to assess.

Other Questions? Don't be afraid to use your Transition Leader as a resource... that's what they are here for!

Welcome Week 2025

A long-standing TCNJ tradition, Welcome Week is the culminating event of your transition to the College. Comprised of 100+ mandatory and optional events, this five-day program for ALL new students (first-years and transfers) will allow you to create memories that will last a lifetime. This year's dates are Thursday, August 21 – Monday, August 25.

Curious what you'll be doing? Feel free to check out the 2025 Welcome Week Draft Schedule! This includes: mandatory sessions, meals, and a few of the bigger events already finalized. The full schedule will be released in mid-August, and we can't wait to share all of the additional sessions we have in the works for you!
